Station Kota, Dated the 25th March 1934.

From (Name) E. H. Gawne, Esquire, I.C.S., (Designation) Collector of South Kanara.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Law (General) Department,
Madras.

Sir,

There are two panchayat courts for the two groups of villages mentioned below:-

(1)	(2)
Talipadi	Kondemula
Elathur	Nadugodu
Elinje	Kilenjur
Aikala.	Mennabettu.

There is no proper site for the location of the court in both groups. If all the eight villages are grouped together and constituted into one court, it can be conveniently located in Mennabettu village, where a good site is available. This is a central locality called Kinnigoli, comprising the houses of Mennabettu village on one side of the road and of Paliyadi on the other and the longest distance from the other villages to the site of the new court is only 2½ miles. Further, it is easily accessible by good roads. The work of the ------- reconstituted court will not be heavy, the [illegible] number of suits filed in both courts is only 74. It is therefore requested that the existing courts may be abolished and the court --- sanctioned for the eight villages.

2. The prescribed notifications are enclosed.

Your obedient servant,

Sd/- Madhavarao
for Collector.
